SETTIMO SENSO, or SEVENTH SENSE is bringing the fashion world together in various cities around the globe through a series of events to give to others in need.

Each event in the series will benefit different causes through proceeds from Settimo Senso auctions.

New York will launch the Settimo Senso series. The next event will be held in Rome during the city Film Festival in October. Milan, Paris, Los Angeles, Moscow, Dubai and London will follow.

Guests are asked to donate designer clothing or an accessory at each event. These fashion items, will be personalized and auctioned at a Settimo Senso event.

Donations from the New York event will be auctioned in Forte dei Marmi, (Tuscany) in July 2008.

Organized by Laura Rossi International, proceeds from this evening will be donated to the Italian Down Syndrome Association.

Friends of Laura Rossi and AIPD include Giorgio Armani, Roberto Benigni, Isabella Rossellini, Sarah Ferguson, Raoul Bova, Ines Sastre, Ferzan Ozpetek, Claudia Cardinale and many others.
